THE PRESIDENT WILL DO JUSTICE.

Recent developments as observed in the political field, show how un just it is, to prejudge President

McKinley's inclinations toward the colored people. Notwithstanding the great obstacles which were acknowledged to be in the way of the President to retard his progress, many of our leading pessimists and alarmists began to charge him openly with being untrue to the promises he had made through his party managers. The episode in which the Postmaster-General was harshly characterized and the general tirade indulged in by one of our leading journalists form the leading features of the more recent controversies indulged in. Aside from these, there were and still are, mutterings of discontent and suspicion coming from many quarters. Pow far were the first kickers from their prophecies may be seen in the fact that in both cases they have failed of fulfillment. In the first case there was splendid recognition in the appointment of two men to positions never before held by colored men, with indications that very soon there will be others. In the case of the general kicking, the fact that the President has begun in a substantial and handsome manner to do right by the colored "Ivnched." brother places said kicker on the other side of the fence. And of course the smaller malcontents fall in the same category. The indications are positive and encouraging attention of the President to the and we may now expect to see, as member of the National Republiwe predicted, greater recognition can Committee, representing for the colored people than was ever the District of Columbia, and asks conferred before. The President will prove beyond doubt his friendship for and fairness toward the race and it will only require a little time to see it. There is no objection to a vigorous protest against unfairness when it has actually existed or continues to exist for some time, but it is out of taste and impolitic as well as unwise to show no disposition to give the President fair time. The new administration has been in the harness hardly five months. Give the party leaders a little more time brethren and we shall see what we shall see.

COMMISSIONER WIGHT.

Commissioner Wight visited the police court a few days ago and was convinced that there are many reforms needed in the police court. Mr. Wight took in the whole situation and will no doubt make some important recommendations in that branch of the Judiciary.

President McKinley's new order has thrown consternation into republican quarters. The democrats are jubilant.

Mr. Fortune and others will now see, if reports are true, that the democrats in the south are not plessed with Negro office holders. What inducement does democrats offer the Negro?

THE BEE will deal with matters pertaining to the people.

POSTMASTER-GENERAL GARY.

There is no man in the country more honored and respected by the American Negro than Postmaster-General Gary. When the report was circulated that Mr. Gary had said that it was the policy of the administration not to appoint colored men to first class postoffices in the south, 'I he BEE was the first paper to make an investigation. The BEE said then it did not believe that President McKinley indorsed what Postmaster General Gary said-if it be true that he said it. A representative of The BRE called to see Postmaster General Gary a few days ago and it can be seen from the interview which our representative had with Mr. Gary's private secretary, that he never used the words credited to him by

When we consider the fact that Mr. Pledger was a candidate for the Jamaica Consulship and was defeated, we can readily Mr. Pledger should pat the administration in a false attitude before the public.

FELL IN HIS OWN DITCH.

Perhaps some of the southern politicians will see in digging ditches for others, that it is a dangerous thing to do. Well, President McKinley was informed by some of these "know it all," that certain men had no influence in the party, and should not be appointed to positions. Since their attack on other men, they have applied for positions of honor and trust, but it seems now that the President is not inclined to reward these informers.

of the port of New Orleans has gone, Demas gets a plum, also does Wimberley. This leaves certain Mississippi gentlemen, who were so active against one of the most representative colored men, in the race in the soup. THE BEE predicted last week that certain gentlemen in Mississippi were knocked out and it has been demonstrated that they are not so warm after all, although they thought they had their man

R EPRESENTATIVE.

THE BEE respectfully calls the questions pertaining to the Disare members of the National Committee, where there are no members of Congress. The Annacostia post office and indeed all postoffices in this city should have the indorse ment of our national committee man. There is to be a meeting of republicans called soon, to ratify the selection of Col. Parker as the member of the National Committee to assure the President that the republicans in this city are perfectly satisfied with him. Col. Parker will certainly be the next delegate from this city to the next National Republican Convention.

SENATOR HANNA.

Whatever may be the faults of Senator Hanna, there is one thing certain, he has done all in his power to build up the republican party. There should be no fight against him in Ohio, for the reason that he has been and is now sincere and honest. THE BEE in common with many of his friends and friends to good government want to see him win in Ohio. Every republican in this country should lend his aid in returning Mr. Hanna to the Senate.

Senator Hanna has removed his headquarters to Cleveland where the political strings will be pulled in the interest of party harmony and success. There seems to be much speculation as to the ouicome in Ohio, but if we are not mistaken Senator Banna will show takes his honors well. His recent that his senatorial toga will not be in his way in the least and that he will get down to business in the same systematic manner that characterized his splendid generalship gentleman and a man who has the in the last campaign. This would seem to be necessary as well as expedient as the state can hardly be carried without their united assistance.

LYNCHING VP. RAPIST.

It may be very distasteful to the people of this country when a person is lynched for an attempt or an actual outrage committed upon a family, but, when we consider how painful it is to witness a daughter of ours suffering with pain, caused by a rapist, it should not be surprising to see such a person strung to a tree with a rope well. around his neck and with bullet holes in his body. When raping ceases, we are confident that lynching will cease. We commend the action of the colored ministers of Richmond, Va. That is the proper course to persue.

JUDGE MILLER.

SUPT. J. P. GREEN.

From the Leavenworth Herald, Hurrah for Green! Ex-State Senator John P. Green of Ohio has been appointed to a position in Washington as superintendent of the Stamp Division, a lucrative job paying $3,000 per annum. He has several hundred subornates in his office. Postmaster-General Gary is directly responsible for the appointment of Mr. Green, but it is thought that President McKinley and Senator Hanna suggested it, as this triumvirate worked hard for the party's interest in Ohio before and since the campaign. Mr. Green is the first Ohioan of color to be recognized by the administration, from the fact that he is an experienced politician, not an experiment.

(From the Rising Sun.)
Ex-State Senator John P. Green, of Ohio, has been appointed Superintendent of the Stamp Division of the Post Office Department. This is one of the most responsible positions in the Post office Department, having as it does several hundred employes; most of whom, according to the Washington Bee, are white. The appointments of Mr. Green is most worthily bestowed upon one of the ablest and most representations. sentative men of the race, and while it does credit to the administration, is one which will be universally appreciated by the Negro press and people. CONTEMPT OF COURT-JUDGE BAILEY.

From the Law Notes.

According to newspaper accounts, Judge William F. Bailey, of the Circuit Court of Wisconsin, has very excuit Court of Wisconsin, has very ex-treme notions of judicial dignity and his power to punish for contempt. It seems that Judge Bailey was up for re-election, and one of the members of the bar took the stump for the judge's opponent. Judge Bailey objected to the speech which the lawyer delivered, and ordered the arrest of latter for contempt. Then he hauled up the editor of a newspaper which published an article advocating the election of his opponent. Naturally these two offenders against the dignity of the Circuit (ourt of Wisconsin desired to be tried before a judge who was not prejudiced. They asked for a change of venue, and Judge Bailey held that their request was fresh contempt of court, for which he threatened to pun-ish both of them. Then they went to the Supreme Court and obtained a stay of proceedings. That, according to the account, was still another contempt, and he sentenced both men to serve thirty days in jail. The warrant was given to the sheriff, but that official, not desiring to run up against the Supreme Court, left town rather than arrest the two men. The case will be The district republicans will heard by the Supreme Court, and it look to our national committeeman to correct, as far as he can, the imposition on District republicans maintaining the dignity of his court.

THE DREAD OF DEATH.

Dwight L. Moody's Boyish Horror of the Grim Destroyer.

"What most concerns us,"

Evangelist Moody in the August Ladies Home Journal, "is the relation which Christ's Resurrection has to use death and future life. So many prodeath and future life. So many people live in a fearful dread of death and ple live in a learner dread of death and the grave, I believe, just because the do not study this doctrine. How anxiously I would count those strokes of the bell to see how long I might reckon on living how long I might reckon on living. Sometimes there would be seventy or eighty tolls, and I would give a sign of relief to think I had so many year. to live. But at other times the would be only a few years tolled, and then a horror would seize me as I thought that I, too, might soon be claimed as a victim by that dread monster, Death. Death and judgment were a constant source of fear to metil I realized the fact that neither sha ever have any hold on a child of God. In his letter to the Romans, the Apostle Paul has showed, in most direct language, that there is no condemn tion for a child of God, but he is passed from under the power of the law, and in the Epistle to the Corinthians he tells us 'there is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body,' 'and as wei have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of "Fruit should be served in flat dish, with, if the weather is particularly hot, a little chopped ice sprinkled over it. Fruit that is very acid should not be sreved too cold. Powdered sugar and cream should accompany the fruit course. In the place of chops or steaks we may have eggplant, broiled or fried tomatoes, panned tomatoes, a dainty omelet with peas, omelet with poached eggs.

"Fruit should be served in flat dish, asparagus tips, or with parsley following the fruit. Corn oysters and corn fritters may also take the place of meat. Coffee, tea, chocolate and milk are, of course, in summer as in winter, the breakfast beverages."

Presbyterian church a devout christian and ment, and in a personal interview with a moral young man. We extend to Mr. C. E. Dawson, private sec'y. to the the bereaved family our heartfelt Postmaster General, Mr. Dawson spoke as follows:

"I am authorized by Mr. Gary to state that charges made by Mr Pledger are unfounded and untrue. Mr. Gary never made such a remark to Mr. Pledger or any one else. I have had a number of inquiries on the sub-ject but we have thought that Mr. Gary's past record a suffi-cient denial of the statement. Mr. Gary cherishes the same respect and consideration for the colored people that has characterized his past loyalty of the colored people in the last campaign it would be both ungrateful and inconsistent for him to race. Allow me to repeat, the charge is untrue and unfounded.

Colored Masons Quarrel. Master of Widowson Lodge charged with being an ex-convict. Jas. O. Jones the instigator. He alleges that Robert L. Reed secured his expulsion on false charges and that the latter has served time in Sing Sing. Letters to prove his statements. Widowson Lodge, F. A. A. M., of New Haven, Conn., is in a state of excitement over a feud which began with the expulsion of Jas. O. Jones as a member of the Fra-ternity. In retaliation Jones has pub-lished the past record of Robert L. Reed, whom he says is an ex-convict and ineligible to a Masonic lodge. Jones has letters from warden Sage of Sing Sing and ex-Gov. Morton of New York to prove his claims. Reed joined the lodge in 1895. He received one black ball but was admitted. After Reed was made he was shortly afterwards elected as the Master of the lodge, and commenced an active policy in regards to railroading candidates in the order. Jones and his friends protested to no effect and shortly charges were preferred against Jones. Jones' friends contending that Reed brought the charges against Jones using the names of other members of the lodge. In due time the trial came off, with Reed in the chair as Master of the lodge. Jones was present with which was refused by Reed. Reed then orders out of the Hall Jones and his friends. Before the Reed delega-tion left the Hall Jones was expelled and notified. He appealed to the Grand Lodge, the G. M. as claimed by Jones' friends was a friend of Reed and the result that Jones was refused admittance to the Grand Lodge. The Grand Lodge then referred the same to a Committee for Investigation. They removed the expulsion and suspended Jones for two years. Jones in the meantime writes to the agent and warden at Sing Sing, who answers and informs him that Reed had been sentenced from Long Island City, Queens County, New York. Sept. 1, 1873 for 20 years and was sentenced by Judge Armstrong and July 7, 1874 transferred to Auburn prison N. Y. July 25, 1875 he was sent from Auburn prison to Clinton prison, Clinton county New York.

The records show that Reed was born the records show that Reed was born in Brooklyn, New York and at time of arrest lived at New Haven, Conn. V-Sage, agent and warden, April 29, 1896. In another communication from the ex-Chambers of New York, at Albany in answer to inquiry as to whether Reed had been pardoned, the reply was that there was no application on file and that the records show that none had been granted since 1878.

Signed A. N. Cole, Private Secretary, May 14, 1896.—Copied from the New Haven Register of July 4 1897.

From information received, Robert L. Reed is now the Sov. Grand Com-mander of A. A. S. R for the North-

Monday July 26, 1897, D. F. Seville 33° Pro. Grand Patron and Special Deputy, O. E. S. for D. C. and jurisdiction Instituted at Alexandria, Va., Star of Bethlehem Chapter No. 4 of the L. Reed is now the Sov. Grand Commander of A. A. S. R. for the Northern Masonic jurisdiction at Philadelphia, Pa.

On the back of this a P. D. G. M., from the Florida jurisdiction enters the state of Connecticut and while a visitor he was treated as a P. D. G. M. As soon as he became a member of the jurisdiction he was employed as counsel for a brother. The G. M. of the state being on the opposite side decided that a P. M. coming in the jurisdiction from other jurisdictions forfeits the honors obtained in their former, upon affiliating in the jurisdiction unless the same shall be obtained by service in the jurisdiction.

N. B.—Unless Presiding officers stop ruling contrary to the regulations etc., governing the order, you can rest assured that strife will strike and strike hard. Masonry is an institution that was never intended to be played with and when these presiding officers can sit on the bench and be judge and jury why trouble will follow. Some people believe in suffering imposition with the expectation that things will come right some day. We should always follow the old adage viz: The Lord helps them that helps themselves, etc.
